A Landmark achievement

The Glen-Gery Landmark Collection, manufactured in Cynthiana, KY, provides the same attention to detail and craftsmanship that have defined all Glen-Gery products for over a century.

The strength, permanence, and beauty of the stone in this collection are benchmark qualities underpinning many architectural designs—contemporary or traditional; commercial, residential, or institutional—manufactured to the same exacting standards of quality that have informed the rest of our products.

Specs

Made with high quality materials, the Landmark Collection delivers a truly lasting architectural solution, supported by a 50-year warranty. Please visit glengery.com for specific details.

Warranty

Glen-Gery's Landmark Collection meets or exceeds code requirements as verified by IAPMO Evaluation Service (Report IAPMO ER# 0377). This report is available online at www.iapmoes.org.

NOTE: Local building codes may vary; always check local building codes for details on the use of manufactured veneer products.

Earth-Friendly

An inherently green product, the Landmark Collection can support LEED certification. It may absorb less heat than other wall-system cladding materials, and provides insulation that improves exterior walls' energy efficiency. It contains pre-consumer recycled content, and may earn a regional materials credit.
